

AFA Scheduling Committee Update

JAN 13, 2020 MEC SCHEDULING CHAIR

NavBlue Update

Late yesterday, AFA was made aware of an issue with carry-in credit values related to the pilot bid awards and the need for the pilots to un-publish their current bid award to correct the issue.

Contractually, flight attendants and pilots use different formulas to calculate carry-in credit values for line-building purposes. For this reason, the miscalculated values for the pilots do not impact Flight Attendants. Flight attendant carry-in credit values are correct.

But, in order to correct the carry-in credits for pilots and re-build the pilot awards, Crew Planning had to update some data files in NAVBLUE that are used by both pilots and flight attendants. Updating these files means that both the pilot and flight attendant bids had to be un-published. The end result of this means you will no longer have access to your Preliminary Bid Award or your Reasons Report for the FEB21 bid in NAVBLUE. You will likely still be able to see your OFF days and any pre-awards in NAVBLUE, but the pairings you were awarded for FEB21 will be missing.

AFA preserved all data from the Preliminary Award, prior to its removal in NAVBLUE. And all necessary data for flight attendants was moved into eCrew/AIMS prior to SAP, which allowed us to open SAP on time yesterday evening at 18:00.

The re-run on the pilot side will not change your Preliminary Award. Lineholders and reserves will still be able to view their schedules via the Preliminary Bid Award email. Currently, lineholders can also view their schedules in eCrew via SAP. Once SAP closes on the 14th at 18:00, you will not have access to see your schedule until Final Bid Awards are posted. Final Bid Awards are required to be posted no later than the 16th at 17:00.

If you need a copy of your Reasons Report from the FEB21 bid award, please email the Joint PBS Committee at qxfa.joint.pbs.committee@horizonair.com with this request and we will be happy to send it to you. Please feel free to reach out to AFA leadership and/or the Joint PBS Committee if you have any questions.

In Solidarity,
